

Weekender sheds with power and water connected, creek frontage & rainforest

Nestled on the banks of Whitfield Creek on 49.4-acre property, this shed dwelling could provide a base for your tropical fishing weekend getaways. The block is situated a short drive from Cardwell and Port Hinchinbrook Marina, and has cleared areas around the dwelling with fruit trees (including durian trees) and gardens. Most of the property consists of tropical forest and native trees, with Whitfield creek winding its way through the property. The shipping container/shed dwelling contains a kitchen area, toilet, bathroom, laundry, workshop and undercover living space. There is plenty of room to build a residence and create your acreage lifestyle in a lovely tropical setting.
